Quince Brinkley Appointed Vice President and Secretary to Board of Directors of Airports Authority

The Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority has appointed Quince T. Brinkley, Jr. to the position of Vice President and Secretary to the Board.

In this position, he will be responsible for providing executive and administrative support services to the Authority's Board of Directors. This support will include review and analysis of Board papers and other documents, research and advice on matters of policy and responsibility for arranging meeting agendas, maintaining the Board's records and governing documents and other support as needed.

Mr. Brinkley comes to the Airports Authority with a distinguished career of public and private service and has extensive experience in real estate finance, community development and airport consulting.

In the public arena, he has worked for the City of Chicago in the Office of Management and Budget and the Department of Housing.

In the private arena, he has served as a Senior Airport Consultant with Unison Consulting Group, Inc. in Chicago where he provided support to Airports across the nation in the field of financial planning, concession analysis and the development of feasibility studies.

He has served as an affordable housing developer in both Atlanta and Washington DC with the Urban Residential Development Corporation and Jubilee Enterprise of Greater Washington.

Over the past 9 years, he has held positions as the N.E. Regional Community Development Lending Manager for Freddie Mac in McLean Virginia, and then as Vice President/Real Estate Portfolio Manager for Wachovia Securities in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Mr. Brinkley is a graduate of Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia with a degree in Finance and holds a Masters of Public Administration from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill.
