Airports Authority Celebrates 10th Anniversary Of the District of Columbia Public Schools Citywide Student Art Exhibition

Student Artwork on Display at Reagan National Airport until May 31

The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority is celebrating the 10th anniversary of the District of Columbia Public Schools Citywide Art Exhibition. More than 30,000 works of student art have been displayed at Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport since this partnership began in 1999.

"Yes We Can—Creatively Communicate" is the theme of this year's exhibition with more than 300 drawings, collages, prints and mixed media created by talented elementary, middle and high school students from across the District of Columbia on display for the public's enjoyment. The exhibit is located at Reagan National Airport in the Terminal B/C baggage claim area until May 31.

MEDIA PHOTO OPPORTUNITY:

The Airports Authority and District of Columbia Public Schools will honor this year's student artists and celebrate the 10th anniversary of the exhibition at a special reception for students, teachers and families on Monday, May 11 at 6 p.m. The reception will be held in the historic Terminal A lobby at Reagan National Airport. Media wishing to cover this event should park in the Terminal A parking garage and walk over to the terminal. When you reach the top of the escalators, turn left and keep walking until you reach the historic Terminal A lobby.
