Dulles Day Family Festival and 14th Annual Plane Pull on Oct. 7

It's Man vs. Machine at the 14th annual Plane Pull, part of the Dulles Day Family Festival on Saturday, October 7. Washington Dulles International Airport welcomes the community to this annual event, which features aircraft on display, a classic car show, live music, food, games and airline ticket raffles. It's also Kid vs. Machine at the Kids' Bus Pull, a new kid-sized event where teams of children pull a school bus 12 feet. Admission and parking for Dulles Day is free. Kids may sign up to participate in the Bus Pull at the event.

- WHAT: Dulles Day Family Festival and 14th annual Plane Pull featuring the new Kids' Bus Pull event
- WHEN: Saturday, October 7 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.
- WHERE: Washington Dulles International Airport behind Cargo Building 5
(Follow the signs on airport grounds to free parking and free shuttle buses to the cargo ramp.)
- COST: Admission and parking for Dulles Day is free

This annual event is sponsored by the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority Police Department, who created the very first Plane Pull competition in the country in 1992. The Plane Pull pits teams of 20 people against a 150,000 pound aircraft provided by FedEx. Teams each donate $1,000 to Special Olympics Virginia.

For more information, the public may call 703-359-4301 or visit www.planepull.com.
