Airports Authority Announces Sandburg Middle School Art Contest Winners Student Artwork Brightens Reagan National Airport While Offering Energy Conservation Reminder

The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority is pleased to announce the winners of our third annual Student Energy Conservation Program Artwork Contest. The contest is open to 7th and 8th grade art students at Carl Sandburg Middle School in Alexandria, one of our school partners.

7th Grade Winners

First Place: Neil McKeown

Second Place: Nicole Campbell

Third Place: Noora Al-Saadawi and Kimberly Walsh

8th Grade Winners

First Place: Kyle Skudlarek

Second Place: Elsa Gehring

Third Place: Zeinah Adawi and Javier Zelaya

Reagan National Airport's Energy Conservation Committee hosts the contest each year and produces posters with the winning artwork to promote energy conservation awareness throughout the Airport. Artwork will be displayed in the Airport's historic Terminal A lobby and the posters will adorn offices throughout the Airports Authority. This year, 160 students participated in the contest, submitting entries to fit the theme "Conserving Workplace Energy—Together We Can Make A Difference." Winners were awarded U.S. savings bonds at a reception held at the Airport in November.
